Welcome to the 2020 Moorsholm Show —

What a strange year this has been! Apart from all the distress caused by Covid-19 illnesses, our whole way of life has been altered, along with our economy. And even if lockdown is gradually eased, all our summer traditions have been skittled, with none of the usual country show events taking place. But that doesn't mean we can't keep the traditions going in other ways, which is why the Hall Committee have been keen to support the idea of an online Moorsholm Show.

And, of course, the fund-raising aspect of our traditional Show has become less important with the news in June that we have received a Government Retail, Leisure & Hospitality Grant of £10-thousand, which will hopefully allow us to do the necessary work to rid the Main Hall ceiling of woodworm, and improve the lighting. So it's not all been bad news.

Peter Smith, MMH Committee Chairman

About this year's Show —

This is an experiment, that I hope will work. Obviously there was no point in starting to plan the traditional Show because of the uncertainties of the Covid-19 situation, but the Land-Rover club that I'm a member of organised a very successful online rally that people could enjoy without leaving their own homes — we even had a 'drive-in cinema' showing my films!

And that inspired me to see if we can do the same thing with Moorsholm Show — we can't push The Best Cabbage through the broadband, of course, or judge the texture of a Fruit Cake, but we can have classes for things that can be emailed... like Photographs and Children's Handwriting. They will be remotely judged, and all the entries and results will be available on the Show website from 0900 on August 22nd.

So the classes that we think will work are on the next couple of pages, and we would love you to enter into the spirit of the virtual Show by sending in your entries by email to moorshow@moorsholmmemorialhall.org.uk by Monday August 10th. Give the name and class (and maybe a caption) in an accompanying email. The photography classes are straightforward — for the others please submit either a photograph or a scan/PDF file. We're making this up a bit as we go along, so if you have any problems, or need advice, please email me at the same address and I'll try to sort things out.

There are no entry fees, so we can't give prize money this year, but prize cards will be given, delivered to your door. Trophies will not be awarded either, and to avoid contact and sanitation problems we ask last year's winners to hold on to their trophies until 2021.

Then just sit back and mark your calendar with August 22nd, when from 0900 you can visit moorsholmmemorialhall.org.uk, click the 'Moorsholm Show' button on the left and there will be all the Show entries for you to enjoy. I'm afraid, though, that you may have to supply your own home-baking refreshments, sports and dog show!

Remember... The Show Must Go On(line)!... but if the situation changes, we'll try and do some (socially distanced) event such as a coffee morning or snack lunch to mark the day. If so, watch out for posters and another flier.

Graeme Aldous, Moorsholm Show Coordinator

The Memorial Hall 200 Club continues to give away ten monthly prizes to those who subscribed at the beginning of the year. The subscription list is closed for this year, but the following have come out of the monthly draw, with the first prize winning £30, the second £20, and the third £10:

Month	Prize	No.	Name
March	1st	54	Judith Watson
	2nd	134	Mike Powell
	3rd	120	Linda Dove
April	1st	100	Pat Gillance
	2nd	37	Graeme Aldous
	3rd	65	Jayne Payne
May	1st	101	'Millie Moo'
	2nd	79	Julia Boocock
	3rd	133	June Powell

Because of the Covid-19 restrictions, it wasn't possible to hold the regular Committee meetings at which the draws are usually made, so instead (once restrictions were slightly eased in June) six of the Committee met on the lawn at Hazletree Farm, and (observing social distancing and hygiene rules) made the draws for March to May. In order to meet transparency requirements, the draw was filmed, and is available on YouTube at <https://youtu.be/GJVWOhVLZ4Y>.

The June, July and August draws will be announced on Show day.
